- 5. "A second large armored train unit, having an identical disposition, is also quartered in the Kaliningrod Oblast (headquarters in Teherniakovsk, former Imsterburg). This unit does not operate on Polish territory.
- 6. "It is reported that both units together constitute a division and that they arrived from the Estonian and Latvian SSR in autumn 1953, to replace another division. Previously, only one Soviet armored train made patrols on Polish territory, It ran on the line Braniewo-Elblag-Malbork-Tezew."
